50. Memoriams

In memory of Louise D. Robertson on her birthday, January 27.
When days are dark and lonely and everything goes wrong, we seem to hear you whisper, cheer up and carry on. Each time we look at your picture, you seem to smile and say, I'm only sleeping, we will meet again someday. We do not need this special day to bring you to our minds, the days we do not think of you are very hard to find.
They say that time, heals all sorrows, for some that might be true,
But there are not enough days in a lifetime to let us forget about you.
The Family
50/1-27-1tp

In memory of Calvin M. Bailess who passed away one year ago, January 23, 1982. God called you away and left us behind, but so many memories are still in our minds. We remember the troubles you helped wash away, by taking time to listen our way. We remember things done to help lighten our load, and we'll meet you some day at the end of life's road. Until then we will remember.
Loved and sadly missed by Betty, Dorothy and children
50/1-27-1tc

IN LOVING MEMORY OF SARA HOWERTON CALDWELL
The clock of life is wound but once
and no one has the power
To tell just when the hands will stop at late or early hour.

Two years ago it was the clock of life stopped for you
"Sara, cheerful and gay,
Come home my child"
That's what you heard him say.

Sad our hearts, and lonely our home,
With tears and sighs, we felt so alone.
The path seems so rough and the way so dark
But here on earth we must carry on.

The rolling steam of life flows on
But in our hearts there lingers still,
The memory of one that we dearly loved,
One whose place can never be filled.

Upright and just in all your ways,
Sweet, tender, honest and true,
Oh! There is not a day
That we do not think of you.

Forgotten to the world by some you may be
With whom you tread life's way,
But with us, just farewell for a time,
We'll meet you again some day.

We know you share that home with Jesus,
That home, so bright and fair.
That land that's filled with gladness
And you find no sorrow there.

We know your favorite song was "Until Then".
Until Then, our Wife and Mother
We will look upward, our hope fixed on God
And follow the pathway that you, our loved one, trod.

Sadly missed by husband, children and grandchildren.
